AMENDED MEMORANDUM AND RECOMMENDATION

The Memorandum and Recommendation entered June 25, 2008 (Dkt. 6) is vacated and replaced with this Amended Memorandum and Recommendation.

Petitioner McCollums's petition for writ of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254 has been referred to this magistrate judge for a report and recommendation (Dkt. 5). McCollum's application to proceed in forma pauperis (Dkt. 4) is granted. The court recommends that McCollum's petition be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction as an unauthorized successive petition.

In his petition, filed April 8, 2008, McCollum alleges he was convicted on September 30, 1991 of forgery in cause no. 610874. He was sentenced to 10 years in prison. McCollum attacks his 1991 conviction on the ground that he was denied his Sixth Amendment right to counsel and the state habeas court erred in rejecting his contention and dismissing his habeas application on procedural grounds.

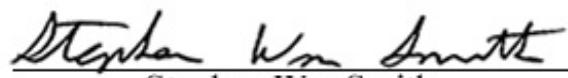

McCollum has already served his ten-year sentence in cause no. 610874. He is no longer in custody on that conviction and cannot challenge it in a federal habeas petition. 28 U.S.C. § 2254(a). Although he does not mention it in his petition or memorandum, he is currently in custody serving a 13.5-year sentence for his 2003 conviction for aggregate theft and forgery of a commercial instrument. To the extent his petition can be interpreted as challenging his 2003 conviction because his 1991 conviction was used to enhance his 2003 sentence, McCollum still cannot proceed. McCollum presented this same challenge in a prior federal petition, Civil Action No. 07-3675, filed October 30, 2007. The district court denied the 2007 petition.

McCollum has not obtained permission from the Fifth Circuit to file this petition as required by 28 U.S.C. § 2244(b)(3). This court has no jurisdiction to entertain a federal habeas petition challenging the same state court judgment as a prior federal habeas petition unless the Fifth Circuit has granted permission. United States v. Key, 205 F.3d 773, 774 (5th Cir. 2000). The court recommends that this petition be dismissed for want of jurisdiction because it is successive.

The court further finds that McCollum has not made a substantial showing that he was denied a constitutional right or that it is debatable whether this court is correct in its procedural ruling. Slack v. McDaniel, 529 U.S. 473, 484 (2000). Therefore, the court recommends that a certificate of appealability not issue.

The parties have ten days from service of this Memorandum and Recommendation to file written objections. Failure to file timely objections will preclude appellate review of factual findings or legal conclusions, except for plain error. See Rule 8(b) of the Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases; 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C); FED. R. CIV. P. 72.

Signed at Houston, Texas on July 18, 2008.

Stephen Wm Smith
United States Magistrate Judge
